MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Army National Guard (ARNG) 2005 Equal Opportunity Advisor (EOA) of the Year Award

1. Each year the National Guard Bureau Equal Opportunity/Equal Employment Opportunity and Civil Rights (NGB-EO/EEO-CR) hosts the presentation of the EOA of the Year Award. This award is presented to the EOA who has distinguished him or herself through their contributions in human relations and equal opportunity within the Army National Guard and their local community.
2. A panel of senior equal opportunity specialists, designated by the NGB Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Civil Rights, will review and evaluate the nominations and select the ARNG EOA winner from the packets submitted. The ARNG EOA of the Year will then go on to represent the Army National Guard and compete with the Army's Major Commands (MACOMs) at the Army Wide EOA Conference in 2005.
3. The nomination packets are based on the following criteria:
 - a. Identify the significant contributions the EOA has made in the equal opportunity program that has directly impacted the organizational readiness.
 - b. Identify the significant contributions the EOA has made in designing and/or implementing in the following: Commander's Equal Opportunity Program; Affirmative Actions Plans; EOR Training; Consideration of Others (CO2) Training; and Community Outreach Programs.
 - c. Identify the significant contributions the EOA has made in fostering positive leadership relationships within the chain of command and community partnership.
 - d. Identify how the EOA has supported the full integration and promotion of minorities and women within the ARNG and community.
 - e. Identify how the EOA supports the advancement of fairness, equality, dignity and respect for the soldiers, family members and civilians of their command by:
